EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Stacey Longanecker on October 14, 2005.

The application has been amended as follows:

Claims 28-31 have been cancelled.

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The closest prior art, Freeman et al. discloses a method and system of providing customized programming in a digital interactive programming system wherein the customize programming is preferably transmitted from a programming transmission center to the receiver of at least one user. Freeman et al. further discloses this invention offers the ability to splice together multiple, and perhaps disparate, programming elements to offer customized, programming to a particular user or multiple users of a similar profile. However, Freeman et al. fails to consider a floating reference content block generated and transmitted in a broadcast data stream that is later substituted with a reference content block, which comprises selected content or a reference to a selected content storage location" as recited in independent claim 9.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably
